

2ND EDITION

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT... Submitting a European Multinational Clinical Study Proposal - Agenda

Submitting a European Multinational Clinical Study Proposal can be a tough journey...

This hybrid training will provide you with a thorough overview of the necessary elements for the submission of a clinical study in the Horizon Europe programme. To be eligible to apply for the onsite session participants must attend all four core webinars.

Training programme and schedule

Webinars

- 07/11 11-13 CET Introduction session - optional
What is Horizon Europe and how does it work?
- 14/11 11-13 CET General overview
Successful application keys & evaluation insights.
- 21/11 11-13 CET Regulatory, ethical, and data framework
Overview, data protection rules, and data management specifications.
- 28/11 11-13 CET Organisation of the study
In the proposal framework (roles, tasks and more...)
- 05/12 11-13 CET Study budget
Important aspects & national specificities

Onsite session

Jan / Feb 2026 One full day

Presentation of funding sources, lessons learned from clinical studies and group work make up the full day on site session.

How to attend ?

Register Online HERE

Participants can attend as many of the webinars as they choose, this is done upon registration. Please note, no certificates of attendance will be provided for the webinars.

Register Onsite SOON

Participants must attend all four core webinars to be eligible for the onsite session. Applications will only be accepted from ECRIN Member countries.

For who ?

This training is designed for the investigators and project managers, in Horizon Europe eligible countries, who are considering submitting clinical study projects for funding in the Horizon Europe programme.